Thought for the week...

⁵The thoughts of the (steadily) diligent tend only to plenteousness, but every one who is impatient and hasty hastens only to want. ⁶Securing treasures by a lying tongue is a vapor driven to and fro; those who seek them seek death. -Proverbs 21:5-6

These verses in Proverbs tells us that certain good virtues produce wealth, while evil virtues lead to lack and death. In verse 5 we are told that having plenty involves our thought life. Negative thoughts bring about negative things in our lives, while positive thoughts and a good outlook produce good things. The Bible tells us that actually the things that manifest in our lives have a deeper origin, and that place is in our hearts.

Proverbs 23:7a: "For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he:----"
